

CLASS-4

SCIENCE (Answers)

Chapter-3 (Safety First)

A. Tick the correct answer.

1. A
2. B
3. A
4. A
5. B

B. Match the columns to make complete sentences.

1. B
2. C
3. D
4. E
5. A

C. Write short answers.

1. In schools accidents can happen when children run and push each other.
2. The precautions to avoid accidental consumption of poisonous chemicals are:-
  - a) Do not take a medicine without asking an adult.
  - b) Poisonous chemicals should be properly labelled.
3. First aid is the medical help given to an injured or a sick person before proper medical aid arrives.
4. The two common emergencies where we need first aid are:-
  - a) Bleeding wounds and
  - b) Burns.

D. Answer these questions.

1. The precautions to avoid accidents at schools are:-
  - a) Do not rush up or down the stairs.
  - b) Do not climb on desks and chairs or throw things around.
2. As a pedestrian to avoid getting hurt on the road are:-
  - a) Do not rush.
  - b) Walk on the footpath.
3. If a person has a bleeding wound I would first wash the cut with water, try to stop bleeding by tying a bandage on the cut and send for a doctor immediately.
4. If a person faints, I would make him lie down with his head lower than the body. Allow fresh air, loosen his clothes, sprinkle cold water on his forehead and send for a doctor.
5. If a person has been bitten by an insect I would apply a paste of baking soda, cold cream and some ice on the affected part to give relief.